IDEAL WEATHER BRINGS RECORD THROGS AT ALL CHURCHES YESTERDAY

With ideal weather conditions prevailing, Arlington churches flocked to all the local churches for services yesterday morning. Attendance was unusually large and in many churches surpassed that of any other Sunday thus far this year.

At St. Agnes Church, Rev. James G. Keller, M. M. of the New York headquarters of the Maryknoll Fathers, preached at all masses and described the work of the Catholic Foreign Mission in the Orient. Rev. Father Keller, who is one of the youngest priests of the Maryknoll order, consisting of over five hundred priests, brothers and students, will stay here today and then leave for Boston where he will remain for a few days in the interest of the drive for the Maryknoll magazine, "The Field Afar."

At the Immaculate Conception Church and St. James Church in the Heights, worshippers thronged all services yesterday.

Protestant Churches reported very large attendance at services which ushered in the spring season. At the Calvary Methodist Church, Miss Isabel Miller, Charles E. Dockrill and Theodore H. Barrows were the soloists in a special program under the direction of Carl S. Nelson, church organist and choir director. Rev. William Shaw preached at the morning service as well as the devotional service in the evening.

The program at the morning worship was as follows:
Silent Prayer
Prelude "Easter Joy"
Processional Hymn
Call to Worship
Apostles Creed
Cantata "The Risen King"
Part 1 "The Lord is Risen"
Responsive Reading
Gloria Patri
Scripture Lesson
Pastoral Prayer
Cantata Part 2 "The Story"
Sermon
Hymn
Benediction
Sevenfold Amen
Postlude "Alleluia"

At the First Universalist Church, Rev. Rubens R. Hadley, preached on "Their Eyes were Wide Opened," from Luke 24:31. At the morning worship.

At St. John's Church, corner of Broadway and Maple streets, Rev. Charles Taber Hall, pastor, officiated at Holy Communion service at 8 o'clock and the regular service at 10:45 o'clock. Rev. D'Arcy Cook of Newport, Rhode Island preached at the morning and evening services.

ARLINGTON LEADS OTHER COMMUNITIES IN HOME BUILDING CONSTRUCTION

Arlington is better off than many other communities of its size as far as home building is concerned, according to an article which appeared in the Springfield Real Estate Review of the Boston Sunday Herald, yesterday.

It is pointed out that in spite of the fact that the report of the building inspector for 1931 shows a marked falling off in the volume of building in Arlington this year as compared with former years, with last year's decrease from the year preceding amounting to approximately $400,000, including a slight decrease in the number of permits issued for one and two-family houses, still the town is second in the state in amount of residential construction. Quite naturally the depression period has been responsible for this slackening in building activities, but considering the times building activities in Arlington up to 1932 have been considered good.

Last year Building Inspector Gratto issued 518 building permits, amounting to $1,781,465 in value. Of these permits 144 were for one-family dwellings and but 20 for two-family dwellings, thus indicating that Arlington is building as a real home-seekers' community, the two-family houses being comparatively few. Arlington has in the past 10 years built many single family houses, and the town is boastful of one of the finest home town communities within a radius of 10 miles of Boston. Notwithstanding the strict rules of the state fire marshal relating to construction of garages as part of the house, it did not deter many builders from this type of garage the past year.

It is interesting to note that during the past year more additions and alterations to stores have taken place than ever before. Some have been quite pretentious, while others have been merely confined to new store fronts and entrances. Permits for only two blocks of stores were issued last year, which was one more than in 1930. This is in sharp contrast to a few years back when quite a number of store blocks were erected each year.

Only two large municipal buildings were projected the past year. One was the new $130,000 high school building, and the other for the new $225,000 Brackett grammar school building in Arlington Heights. At the annual town meeting the past month, $18,000 was appropriated for the erection of suitable passageways between the new and old high schools. The committee appointed relative to a new school on the lot owned by the town on Pleasant avenue has secured plans and estimates, but owing to conditions this year, the committee has asked for no appropriation, putting this project off until 1933.

Many town projects, such as grading of parks and playgrounds, eradication of mosquitoes, etc., have been voted favorably upon by Arlington, and appropriations made in order to provide work and money for the town's unemployed. Extension of storm drains, and water and sewer mains have also been sanctioned by the town, which will keep all the town employees at work, and also provide labor for a certain number of the unemployed while at the same time all these projects will be for the betterment of the town.

While last year more than $165,000 were appropriated and expended on new street construction, this year, the town has turned down an extensive program of street construction, in an effort to keep the tax rate down. Arlington now has an estimated property valuation of $60,000,000, and it is hoped that the tax rate will be slightly lower than last year's $31.40 rate.

BRUSH FIRES KEEP MEN BUSY

The entertainment is sponsored by the St. James Court or Arlington Heights and the proceeds will be turned over to the funds of St. James' Church.

"Little Thing" is one of the most delightful plays to be presented in Arlington this season and with a capable cast under the direction of Miss Anne Cannon, the play is certain to pleasantly entertain those who will attend. The cast will include Mary E. Kenney, Marie Casey, Winifred King, Alicia Bergin, Mary Bergin, Anne Rayne, A. Kiley Hatchfield, Charles Pyne, James Scanell and Frank Kenney.

With the Arlington Homemaker

Fancy puddings and ices come and go but pie holds its own in popularity in most New England homes. Time was when pies were a soggy, heavy over-ripe dessert, not to be compared in any way with the dainty, fluffy pies we find on our modern tables. Remember to sift the flour before measuring, keep everything at low temperature, handle materials lightly and bake at proper temperature. Taking care on the details will insure a flaky crust and be well worth the slight extra trouble.

Orange and Lemon Sponge Pie
Juice and grated rind 1 orange
Juice and grated rind 1 lemon
5 tablespoons water
3 eggs yolks
3-4 granulated sugar
3 egg whites
2 tablespoons powdered sugar
Line a medium sized pie plate with pastry, bake at 450 degrees for 12 or 15 minutes. Meanwhile, combine the juices, grated rinds of the orange and lemon and water. Heat in top part of double boiler and pour slowly over the combined beaten yolks and granulated sugar. Cook in double boiler until thick, then move from range and cool thoroughly. Beat the egg whites stiff, add the powdered sugar and fold into the cooled mixture. Pour into baked pastry shell. Bake at 350 degrees about 30 minutes.

Butterscotch Pie

Yolks of 2 eggs
1 cup brown sugar
1 tablespoon butter
2 cups milk
2 tablespoons flour
Cook in double boiler 20 minutes. When cool, pour into a rich crust, baked beforehand, cover with meringue and brown slowly in oven.

Accident Victim Is Still On Danger List

Mrs. Edith Mooers, of 34 Grafton street, Arlington, was still on the danger list at the Symmes Arlington Hospital last evening. According to the report at the hospital, her condition was about the same as last Friday when she was struck by a mail truck in front of the East Arlington postoffice. She is suffering from internal injuries.

Death Puzzle

Mystery still veils the death of 19-year-old Ruth Youngblood, pretty A. and M. co-ed cheer leader of Eldorado, Ark., whose dead body was found on the railroad tracks, she having been killed by a passenger train. According to police, Irvin Eddington (inset) is said to have confessed that he attacked the girl and threw her under the train, but the coroner refused to believe Eddington's story, holding to the theory that the girl committed suicide. Eddington is held for further investigation.

Lad Sets Fire To Lace Curtain With Lighter

Quick thinking on the part of Mrs. Sadie E. Thompson of 27 Hopkins road, prevented a serious fire in the Thompson home late yesterday afternoon. A lace curtain in a bedroom window on the second floor of the house was accidentally ignited with a cigar lighter by her small 8-year old son, Stanwood. In a short time the curtain was a mass of flames. Mrs. Thompson tore from the flimsy material from the window frame and threw it out on the lawn.

Answering the alarm from box 35 at 5:18 o'clock when heavy automobile traffic due to the ideal driving conditions was at its height, fire apparatus from Central Station and the Arlington Heights headquarters arrived at the home in quick time. When firemen arrived at the Thompson home, the blaze had been partly extinguished.

Most of the damage was confined to the window frame in the bedroom. The boy as well as his mother escaped burns. The house, a one family dwelling, is the property of Eastwood Thompson.

COMPLAIN ABOUT STORM- DRAIN

Numerous complaints have been made about a defective storm drain between the inbound rails on Massachusetts avenue, near the Centre rail road crossing, and immediate steps are to be taken in order to remedy the situation. The police have notified the proper authorities and repairs will be made shortly.

Jack Downey, Youthful Member of North Medford Club Trails Jimmy Lewis in Brighton Race

Youngster of Norfolk House Wins With Six Minute Advantage Under Handicap Arrangement — Downey Finishes 15 Seconds Behind — Tommy Smith Is Third, DeMar Sixth, Pawson 13th and Kelley 15th

Young Jack Downey, a student of Medford High wearing the colors of the North Medford Club, finished second in the first annual 10-mile run of the Presentation A. C. of Brighton on Saturday afternoon, run through the streets of Brighton and Newton. The event was won by the diminutive Jimmy Lewis of the Norfolk House of Roxbury who finished 15 seconds ahead of Downey although both were clocked for the same time in the handicap arrangement. Tommy Smith, another midget member of the North Medford Club finished third, close to Downey. Paul Casano was tenth, Paul Martin 14th, Johnny Kelly 15th, and Bill Malloy 16th. Leslie Pawson, who won the recent North Medford 20-miler, was 13th and took the time prize by a close squeeze from Kelley. Clarence DeMar, veteran plodder of Keene, N. H. finished sixth and was running quite strong at the finish. A longer race would have probably resulted in his victory.

Military Rivals Play Wednesday

Company I of Stoneham Visits Company E at Armory

Company I of Stoneham will be the opponent of Company E in the regular Wednesday evening feature at the Armory this week. The military championship, held by the Medford unit, will again be at stake, the visitors insisting upon such although they show no great record to back up their claims to the title. Company E has consented despite the general feeling that it will win easily. Since challenging Company E the Stoneham unit has twice backed out for no given reason, finally consenting to play on Wednesday night. The Medford soldiers are real lenient for under such conditions they could not have been forced into the contest. Manager Joe Reardon is seeking a return game with the Belgian American Union five of Medford which won by four points in the game played last Tuesday night, three of the Company regulars being absent at the time. Reardon feels that the result will be entirely different with the team at full strength. It is probable that a return game will also be arranged with the Medford Teachers, who were defeated by Company E, 29-28.

Eddie Mack's Bouts At Mechanics Hall Next Monday Night

Transferring the scene for the first time from the Arena to Mechanics Building, Eddie Mack will resume his regular semi-monthly boxing attractions next Monday evening with Leo Larivee, New England middleweight crown holder, and Sam Bruce of Buffalo meeting in the main melée 10 rounds. Larivee and Bruce had it out at Braves Field last summer with the champion gaining the decision after a bruising clash. The referee voted for Bruce but the two judges gave Larivee the verdict. Bruce has just returned from a successful tour of the Pacific Coast.

Made in the Miami, Okla., hospital, this photo shows three-year-old Gerald Collins, the boy who was rescued from his precarious position in a drill hole of the local mine and lead mine, with his mother, Mrs. Paul Collins. Although bruises constitute the boy's major injuries from his twelve-hour ordeal in the hole, physicians are taking precautions against the lad's contracting pneumonia.

All-Star Shows On Boston Mats

Wrestling At Garden on Wednesday and Arena On Thursday

A pair of all-star shows are offered to the wrestling fans of Greater Boston this week, one on Wednesday evening, at the Gardens, promoted by Toots Mondt, and the other Paul Bowser's attraction on Thursday night at the Arena, both of which are charity affairs. The headliners of the grappling game have been lined up by both promoters and the champions of both factions will show in the main bouts.

The Garden entertainment, of which a large portion of the proceeds will be given to the Children's Sunlight Hospital, will have Jim London, the Greek Adonis, meeting the Masked Marvel, who has demonstrated his wares on the Garden mat in several previous shows arranged by Mondt.

Other bouts on this card will be a semi-final between Leo "Arms" Pinetki and Tiny Roe, "The Indian"; and a special bout bringing together "Gentleman" Jack Washburn and Kolo Kwariani; and several bouts with a 30-minute time limit.

Both the final and semi-final will be best two out of three falls. Washburn, who packs the fans in despite the adverse criticism to his brutal tactics, consented to appear only because of the worthy cause the bouts are being conducted for. Otherwise he wouldn't have signed unless his opponent with the championship at stake.

Henri DeGlane, present titleholder of the Bowser circuit, will have his diamond studded belt hanging in the balance when he squares off with Ed Don George of California, the star who took the title from Gus Sonnenberg two years ago and lost it to DeGlane a few weeks later. George is popular with the Boston fans and although they will back him in order to spite the Frenchman who has not been upset since copping the championship over a year ago.

Jim Browning, the turn-over scissor king, will meet Nick Lutze in the semi-final of a 30-minute time limit. Al Morelli, former Boston College grid fash and latest sensation in the mat game, will tilt with Charlie Strack in another of the feature bouts. Twenty-five per cent of the net proceeds will be given to the unemployment fund of Boston.

Legislation Needed To Control Autoists

Seven persons were killed in motor vehicle accidents in Massachusetts during the week of March 25 to April 1, four less than in the corresponding period a year ago and a decrease of two child victims. Six of the victims were pedestrians and one was an occupant of a car. Registrar of Motor Vehicles Morgan T. Ryan said: "The list this week is pleasingly shorter than that of the closing week of March last year, and shows two less children killed. Crossing the street when struck" is the report in all six of the pedestrian cases. One victim was alighting from a bus, pointing again to the dire need of special legislation to help control motorists who drive carelessly and too fast near buses taking on or discharging passengers.

"With the coming of fair Spring weather the first week of April and the addition of some thousands of cars to those already on our roads, I once more call upon our motorists to heed the oft-repeated warning, to take more time to live and let others live; to drive at moderate, reasonable speeds; to consider how many feet the car is going in one second, even at ordinary speeds; and to reckon, before too late, the tremendous striking force of even a light car moving rapidly. Did you ever see a motorist drive his car off the top of a five-story building and crash on the paving-stones in the street? That, in effect, is what a driver does who crashes his car against any fixed object like a tree, pole or wall while driving at the rate of 40 miles per hour. A similar collision at 60 miles per hour is equivalent to plunging off the edge of a precipice 120 feet high."

Sixty-six persons were convicted last week of operating while under the influence of liquor, three less than the preceding week. Eight were committed to jail, two from District Courts, and six from Superior Courts.

Two persons were convicted for the second time within six years in District Courts for operating while under the influence of liquor. One was given a jail sentence and appealed, and one was fined.

There were 1009 licenses and registrations suspended or revoked last week, 199 less than in the week before and 152 less than in the same period last year. Of these, 74 were for driving after drinking intoxicating liquor, and 697 on account of insurance cancellations.

Husband, Wife to Die in Chair

Convicted of the murder of her 14-month-old child, Mrs. Mary Simpson and her husband, of Cortland, N. Y., are to die in the electric chair during the week of May 16, failing a successful appeal of their sentence. The man and wife are cousins and were only married last June. It was not until several months after the marriage that Simpson charged with the actual commission of the crime. Defense attorneys claimed that the "mental ages" of the accused were below those of a child of 12.

SMALL BOY INJURED

Raymond Aylward of 21 McCall street, Medford, while playing ball on Elm street Saturday, ran into the auto of Frank H. Green, 915 Main street, Melrose. Green took the boy to his home. He sustained minor injuries.

Sidelight of War

A sad echo of the World War took place at Philadelphia recently when Tobias J. Burke (above) visited the mother he had not seen for ten years as she lay on her deathbed. Burke, who knows himself only as Joe Bump, a garage owner of Berwyn, Ill., left his home 10 years ago, lost his memory as a result of shell-shock sustained in the war, and has no recollection of his home, mother or former friends.

When an 18-year older can be sprinkled with many veterans, he is a great future in long-distance run. The accomplishment of both Jimmy Lewis and Tommy Smith in the first annual 10-miler of the Presentation A. C. last Saturday.

Downey is a Junior at Medford that he, also, did not give his correct to be any more than 16. Jack has been at the Medford Club only a short while and has been a long-distance jaunts and school squad at the same time. Blue and White although the distance him. He won that event in the meeting New Year's Day.

Enough credit is not given to Tommy diminutive member of the North Medford third in the Presentation run. Tommy along for two years but has failed to win every race. Something has always popped blisters, sore legs, pains and so on, all to finishing.

Last year he stuck it out for 24 miles marathon and was forced to drop out with within eye-range. He ran 17 miles of the Club race, finally being forced out at West with cramps. Tommy is a comer and hopes to run A. A. run for the first time when the event is held in two weeks.

Hundreds were disappointed when Jimmy Henigan did not run Saturday. But the Smiler, although he wishes to please at all times, is conditioning himself carefully to make a grand bid for an Olympic berth. He has been bothered with a sore heel for two weeks and was not willing to take any risk of seriously injuring himself.

Radical Change In Basketball Code

Rulemakers in all sports are continuously confronted with problems and must each year make several changes in their codes to benefit the game in which they are particularly interested. In hockey the main protest is against intentional golfing of the puck up the ice to stall for time. In basketball the chief kick is against the member of a team serving one or two minutes penalty box. In basketball the chief kick is against the ball in a team's own territory with only a few seconds remaining in the last few seconds of play.

Thus far no attempt has been made to change the situation but a rule is expected to pass the Basketball Association which will prevent stalling for over 10 seconds. The ball has been taken off the backboard. In that team must move it forward and over the center zone. The referee will be forced to give possession to the team at the nearest point outside of the boundary.

This recommendation will be made by the National Association of Basketball coaches to the Rules committee and is expected to pass unanimously as it has already resulted in favorable comments from members of that body.

Plummer Leaves Next Week

Irv Plummer leaves next Sunday morning for Wilkes Barre, Penn., to join the representative of that city in the New York-Penn. league. On the following day the opening practice is scheduled and exhibition games will be staged for two weeks prior to official start on Sunday, May first.

Irv, who has played about every position since entering professional ball with the Brockton Club back in 1927, will be one of the two catchers for Wilkes Barre. He played the outfield for that club in the early part of last season but went behind the bat in a few practice games and looked good at that position that he has been ordered to report under the conditions that he will concentrate on catching and no other position.

In the 1931 season Irv started off with Wilkes Barre, having been traded at the finish of the previous season from the Binghamton Club of the same circuit. He was promoted shortly to Toronto of the International League but used in a trade later that sent him to Albany of the Eastern League while Toronto received a top-notch hurler in the exchange. Albany is the farm of the New York Yankees and when that major league outfit sent two recruit outfielders down for further seasoning there was no room for Irv. He was released outright and returned home to finish the season in the Cape Cod and Boston Two League. He led the Cape league with a batting mark of .417 and hit well near that figure with the Two circuit. In the 15 games he played with Albany he rode the apple at a .350 clip.

Johnny Murphy, former Somerville High star southpaw pitcher, has also been purchased by Wilkes Barre and will make the trip to that city with the Medford boy. If everything develops as expected this pair should form the first-string battery.

Night games are quite common in the New York-Penn. league. Wilkes Barre will play under the lights five evenings of the week, afternoon contests being scheduled on Saturday and Sunday afternoons only. When doubleheaders are arranged during the week one game is played in the afternoon and the second at night.

Irv looks forward to a big season. This will be his fifth season in professional ball and he is due to make the grade. It would not be surprising if he were to land under the big tent before the finish of the long campaign.

Daddy Sunshine Club Rules

1. Be kind and helpful to others.
2. Look both ways when crossing streets.
3. Always be kind to dumb animals.
4. Write a letter to Daddy Sunshine, or have Mother or Dad write it for you, every now and then.
5. Try to bring a "Ray of Sunshine" into the lives of your parents and others every day of the week and every week of the year.

These rules are not very difficult for good girls and boys to keep. Most of them are kept by them anyway.

Mail your letters and stories to Daddy Sunshine, in care of this paper. He will answer them in the Daddy Sunshine Column.

Write on but one side of the paper, and place your age and address on the letter after your name. Give the day, month and year of your birth.

To join the club all you have to do is promise to keep the rules—and keep them.

Some Puzzles

Dear Daddy Sunshine:

I am sending in some puzzles for the members to solve. Here is the first one:

My first one is in red, but not in white.

My second is in dark but not in light.

My third is in bread but not in cake.

My fourth is in bruise but not in ache.

My fifth is in ice, but not in freeze.

My sixth is in toast but not in cheese.

My letters are six and for you they will spell

The name of an animal you know well.

Here is the second:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

Can you arrange the above figures so that their sum is 100?

Another:

What is it that is found in the center of Australia and of America and in no other place?

Some riddles:

What two letters of the alphabet contain nothing?

What have you seen that you will never see again?

What part of a fish is like the end of a book?

Why is a dog's tail like something brand new?

Where are two heads, better than one?

I am rather late for an Easter poem, so I am writing an April poem. This was written by Bliss Carmen. It is called Aprilian.

When April came with sunshine And showers, and lilac bloom, My heart with sudden gladness Was like a fragrant room.

Her eyes were heaven's own azure, As deep as God's own truth, Her soul was made of rapture And mystery and youth.

I would like to be included among those who are going to visit the ship. Hoping I can go, I remain,

Dorothy Bird

The puzzles are great, Dorothy. I am going to write a story which I made up. The title of my story is, "The Easter Bunny Rabbit."

One night as Bunny Rabbit was walking along the road, he saw a little elfed mouse at her door. As she saw Bunny Rabbit she said, "Do you know that little Blue Jay flew to the south to-day?" Little Bunny Rabbit was so surprised. The little field mouse said to little Bunny Rabbit, "Won't you come in?" But little Bunny Rabbit said thank you, and walked away. He was just about to walk away when he heard some one talking. It was two little girls. They were talking about Easter. They each wanted a little Bunny Rabbit. Little Bunny Rabbit was so glad to hear that. So little Bunny Rabbit became one the little girls Bunny Rabbits.

Yours truly,

Emma Cataldo.

Thank you, Emma, for your original story. Daddy Sunshine encourages stories by his members as story writing is wonderful practice and may lead to greater things.

About A Show

Dear Daddy Sunshine:

I am going to tell you about the Minstrel Show given by the choral class of the Catholic Women's Club at the Medford Women's club on Governors avenue March 28th.

It was in a form of a cabaret with most of the women in evening gowns. There was a colored waiter who was Mrs. Flynn of South Medford, and two white waitresses who were Mrs. John King and Mrs. Lawrence E. Hurley, who served gingerale to the patrons in the cabaret during the performance.

The first number on the program was a song entitled "Home" by the chorus. Then there was a duet by Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Healy. The next number was a song entitled "Ooh! That Kiss," a comedy act by my mother, Mrs. Laurence E. Hurley. The next number was Miss Brennan. She sang a very pretty Irish ballad. The next number was an old fashioned number entitled "Dear Old Girl" by Mrs. Morrey. Then Mrs. Flynn gave a song and dance entitled "Now's The Time To Fall In Love" and maybe she can't dance. Mrs. Goodwin sang a song in French. The next number was an Italian duet by Mrs. Weaver and Miss Brennan which was very good. It was a romantic Italian peddler singing to his sweetheart. Mrs. John King did her bit with a laughing song. I think those lilies on her ankles were tickling her.

Miss Louise O'Hara, the director of the choral class sang a solo entitled "Sunshine of Your Smile", and Mrs. Armstrong sang a song entitled "Save the Last Dance For Me." Oh, by the way, Miss Dorothea Cunningham sang "Love Letters In The Sand" and danced the Frisco. Then Mrs. Sullivan sang a song entitled "Shine On Harvest Moon." Last of all was the wedding with Mrs. Rogers as the groom, Mrs. Healy as the bride and Mrs. Sullivan as the minister. They were very funny. I would like to go with Phil McGonagle on that boat in Boston. Please send me the tickets if you think my letter was interesting. Well, that's all for tonight.

Yours sincerely,
Brenda Hurley

Brenda, you make a splendid reporter. Your report of the show shows that you have talent in this respect. You are welcome to come with the group to visit the ship. The date will be set, shortly. Watch the paper.

Ten Year Schedule Of Ice Going Out Of Mystic Lakes

The date of the ice going out of the Mystic Lake, from the record being kept by Stephen S. Langley who resides on Cambridge street, Winchester, on the shore of the Lake, is herewith given.

This year Mr. Langley states that "It is difficult to report on the going out of the ice, but I think it would be fair to call it Mar. 25. March 26 is the first morning that much of the lake has not been covered with thin ice. There is still a very little left by the shore where the bathing place is. The unusual thing about it this year is that at no time has the lake been frozen all over this winter. This has never happened before that I know of."

As a matter of interest it was not until the month of March that any ice to speak of formed on the lake. Previously through the winter the lake was completely open except for a small amount of shore ice for a day at a time.

The table following gives the dates of the ice going out of the lake since 1918:

April 2	1918
March 9	1919

AT THE COPLEY

One of the highlights of the dramatic season in Boston brings Mitzi, the famous and beloved star of musical comedy stage to the Copley Theatre this week in the smart and highly amusing comedy, "Paris."

An irresistible and charming comedienne, the dainty star's appearance in "Paris" will be welcome news to her hosts of friends. The rollicking and hilarious story concerns the adventures of Vivienne Rolland, a tempestuous little Parisienne musical artist, who falls in love with the scion of a staid old New England family, visiting in Paris with his mother. The highly respectable and very prim dowager from Newton Centre is at first appalled by her son's choice, but not only yields to Vivienne's charms, but is completely transferred into a gay and dainty matron, on the go until the early morning hours with a handsome young gigolo, Vivienne's dancing partner obligingly keeps the lady interested, and a series of hilarious complications provide rounds of laughter from beginning to end. There is an opportunity, too, for some song numbers for Mitzi, of the gay, informal type which have always delighted her audience. It is a rollicking yet sophisticated story, with the dainty Mitzi wearing smart gowns and at her sparkling best.

In the role of rejuvenated Mrs. Sabbot Helen Ray, a great favorite with Copley audiences, has a part rich in comedy opportunities, while others who contribute to the merry story are Shepherd Strudwick, Joseph Cotten, Amy Loomis, Felice Leeds, John Lucas and others.

There are matinees on Tuesday and Saturday, with the top price on Tuesday afternoon $1. At all other performances prices range from 50 cents to $1.50.

—Miss Alice O'Leary of Sheridan avenue, winner in the Paul Whiteman audition contest, sang several selections over the radio from WBZ Saturday night during the Whiteman hour program.

Going to Court

Enigmatic as ever, former Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon is shown as he sailed from New York for England to take up his new duties as American Ambassador to the Court of St. James. The new Ambassador said he saw no prospect of any immediate change in the European and reparations situation.

Mrs. F. I. LeBuff Has Birthday Party

Twenty-five relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Frederick I. LeBuff, 29 Garfield avenue, Saturday evening, to celebrate her twenty-first birthday. Mrs. LeBuff received many beautiful presents and the birthday party, which was informal, was a delightful occasion.

There were cards and games, in which everyone joined, and musical entertainment was provided. Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. F. A. LeBuff.

In addition to those from Medford who attended the party, guests were present from Malden, Melrose, Arlington and Jamaica Plain.

South Medford

—Miss Belle Sargent of Henry street was operated upon yesterday for appendicitis at the Somerville hospital.

—The Doing circle of the Union Congregational church will hold a food sale on Friday, at Gnecco's Real Estate office on Main street.

An interesting gymnastic exhibition was given at the Lincoln Jr. High school on Friday in an assembly sponsored by Mr. Bohn.

Following the salute to the flag led by girl scout Helen Kelleher, two verses of the Star Spangled Banner were sung by the pupils. Leon E. Davis announced that the Junior 3 Class Play would be presented on April 14, at eight o'clock in the Lincoln Jr. High School. The proceeds will be donated to the Welfare Fund of the Parent Teacher Association in South Medford and will be used exclusively for those needing help in that vicinity. Much work is being put into the preparation of the play and the price of the tickets this year will be only twenty-five cents.

Mr. Davis cautioned the boys of the school once again as to the danger of stealing rides on the rear of electric cars saying that an accident had occurred that morning which had been witnessed by two of the teachers in the school.

The program was then announced by Alfred Pompei, master of ceremonies and was as follows:

Songs by Junior 3A and B boys
"We're the Boys of L. J. H. S."
A Cheer—by the same boys
Song—"Asleep in the Deep"

Tumbling and gymnastic exhibition.
The boys were assisted by the Masked Marvel in the person of Louis Sorrentino who created much amusement by his clever antics and weird costume. The gymnasts were—V. Ballero, J. Burns, W. Sanford, M. Morabito, J. Guido, F. Wise, J. Keough, J. Cusack, J. Maletta, E. Sutherland, M. Christofi, J. Fonee, J. Dolan, G. Davis, A. Fillipone, W. Bryan, R. Visconti, R. Mortensen, G. Haley, F. McDowell and F. Monagle.

Church Supper
A very successful supper under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Barrows was held at the Union Congregational church.

Following the delicious supper, an informal reception was held to Reverend Glade McGlash and Mrs. McClish who are leaving Medford today. The family will go by automobile to Dun-kirk, Indiana where Reverend McClish has accepted the pastorate of the Plymouth Congregational Church. Mrs. McClish was presented with a beautiful bouquet by Mrs. Margaret Barrows in behalf of the Women's Christian League.

A splendid program followed the reception which consisted of the following numbers:

Does your motor run evenly at all speeds? Can you get the same even pull at all speeds; in traffic 5-15—or on the open road 15-25? With your motor firing on all cylinders you can open the throttle quickly and your motor will smoothly increase in speeds. Assure yourself of this by having your spark plugs tested

G. O. P. Council 6th District
Meets Apr. 12

A meeting of the Republican Council for the Sixth Middlesex district will be held in Times hall, Woburn, Tuesday, April 12th at 6:30 p. m.
The chief speaker of the evening is John Richardson of Boston and Canton, who is a personal friend of President Hoover and the most powerful figure behind the Hoover campaign in Massachusetts. He is also a delegate to the Republican National Convention from his Congressional district. He will discuss the policies and achievements of the Republican Administration. Mr. Richardson is reputed to be closer to the President than any other person in Massachusetts and is admirably qualified to speak for the Chief Executive.
At the close of the formal speaking program a short recess will be declared. The Council will then reconvene and those who care to remain will have an opportunity to discuss the stand the party should take on National Prohibition. The discussion was started in Winchester a few weeks ago and from the interest manifested by those present the coming session is destined to be a lively one. The particular point under discussion as the last meeting closed was the advisability of holding a national constitutional convention to make recommendations as to changing the law. This will be considered further.
"Inasmuch as the stand of the Republican party at the National Convention will largely determine at least the immediate fate of the National Prohibition both wet and dry have an opportunity to press their views at the Woburn meeting," Kenneth B. Williams, chairman of the Council, and alternate delegate to the National Convention, will preside, and it is expected that Mr. Richardson will remain for the discussion. This will give Republicans of the section an opportunity to express their views directly to two of the delegates who will necessarily be influenced by the sentiment of the majority.
The Council is designed to occupy an entirely new field, namely, to keep the members of the party posted on party matters and to give them an opportunity to discuss vital issues. This will make possible the carrying of the sentiments of the voter direct to party leaders and conventions.
Mrs. J. G. Harris and George S. Miller are in charge of the dinner tickets for Medford.

GALES OF LAUGHTER ROCK THE RIVERSIDE

The Riverside theatre was filled to capacity last evening, when the St. Francis of Assisi players, presented "The Absent Minded Bridegroom," a comedy in three acts. It was one of the most enjoyable performances ever given by these capable players, the play being filled with laughable situations from start to finish. Every part was well taken and it would be difficult to single out any individual player as being the best. Some of the parts were what is termed "Fat" and the performer never missed taking advantage of the opportunity to make the most of the clever lines.
Eleanor Carroll, gave a sustained characterization in the part of Tessie, the maid, which could hardly have been improved upon. Raymond Quill, as Timothy Shea, was greeted with roars of laughter and his work was worthy of a professional as was the acting of William Garrity, as Patrick Rooney, whose help in assisting Shea, to escape the bonds of matrimony, cost his friend money.
Mrs. Rooney as played by Mary O'Hara was cleverly done and one of the outstanding hits of the evening. Alfred Maguire as Fred Grady, could not have been improved upon and his naturalness in the part which called for a female impersonation, deserves high praise. Henry Hurford, in the part of Jimmy, the Widow Rooney's son, carried his part off splendidly and in his scenes with Nora, Shea's daughter was extremely competent. May Appleyard as Kathleen O'Connor, served as a capable foil to Alfred Maguire, in her scenes and was also admirable by her naturalness. Doris Pulumbo, as the daughter of the absent-minded Timothy Shea, was a delight to the eye and played with a clear conception of the possibilities of her role.
William O'Mara, as Slade the teacher, played his part with assurance and was one of the chief factors in the laugh-making, especially in the last act. The children added to the enjoyment of the performance and were played by Marian Woods, Geraldine Lamourau and William Garrity Jr. The Rev. Norbert H. McInnis, deserves high commendations for his direction of the players, as shown by the smooth performance. The stage setting was adequate and in good taste.

Rarely has an amateur performance been given in Medford which calls for such high praise and the St. Francis players are to be congratulated.
Between the first and second acts Miss Maye Hurley and Leo Sullivan gave vocal solos, which were well chosen and called forth deserved applause.
The singers were accompanied by J. Frank Donahue, who played the piano selections, one of his own composition. His choice of selections and his technical skill was loudly applauded. One of the outstanding features of the evening was the concert at the beginning of the evening, and the entire act music furnished by Medford's favorites, Corbett's Irish Minstrel, who gave their services to aid the parish fund.

The Black and White entertainers, "stopped the show," when they appeared between the second and third acts, and the audience could not seem to get enough of their singing and repartee. Charles West and Joseph Sheeren as minstrels, Miss Helen Tafe in clever songs and characterizations with Estelle Sheeren ably supporting them at the piano was one of the best acts ever seen on a local stage.
An afternoon performance was given for children who filled most of the seats and with the large attendance in the evening, St. Francis of Assisi parish must have a substantial sum through the efforts of the dramatic society of the parish.

Football Injuries And Highway Accidents Are Compared In Report

Football injuries and highway accidents would appear to have little in common save that in both instances somebody gets hurt, but a survey of America's greatest intercollegiate sport has revealed that the basic troubles which caused 49 deaths on the football field last fall are fundamentally the same as those which precipitated more than 34,000 deaths on the nation's highways last year.
Such was the conclusion reported today by the Governor's Committee on Street and Highway Safety after comparing the results of a nation-wide survey of gridiron deaths and injuries with the known results of last year's highway fatality toll.
The football survey conducted by the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, the National Football Association, the National Football rules committee and New York University, has conclusively shown that approximately half of last fall's deaths and injuries were due to the following main causes:
1. Lack of rigid enforcement rules by officials.
2. Improper training, conditioning and coaching of players.
3. Dangerous equipment.
Substituting police for officials, motorists for players and brakes, lights, horns and other automobile accessories for football equipment, and the first three divisions of a foregoing table present a pretty fair picture of what caused the bulk of last year's highway fatalities. Here is the way they happened.
In 52.6 per cent of last year's 34,400 fatalities some driver was breaking the law, divided as follows: 14.7 per cent were exceeding the speed limit; 11.7 did not have the right of way; 9.7 per cent were driving recklessly; 8.7 per cent were on the wrong side of the road; and 7.8 per cent were passing, signalling or turning improperly. It is no fault of the police that all highway laws cannot be enforced at all times, but nevertheless failure to force drivers to observe the law at all times produced the above table.
The second comparison is even more startling. Improper training, conditioning and coaching of players was responsible for possibly 25 per cent of football's deaths and injuries, the survey said, but improper training of the nation's automobile drivers led to a situation in which three-fourths of last year's automobile accidents were due entirely to improper actions on the part of operators, resulting in the death of 26,800 persons.
In the matter of dangerous equipment, the football committee placed it third in the list of injury causes, and it finds the same place on the highway trouble table. Ninety-five per cent of the automobiles involved in fatalities last year were in good condition, but the remaining five per cent had faulty (and thereby dangerous) equipment, including defective brakes or steering mechanisms, glaring headlights, one or both headlights out, tail light out or obscured, defective tires which blew out, or other minor equipment defects, but all potential accident causes.
The men who conducted the football survey, Prof. Frank S. Lloyd of New York University, Dr. Marvin A. Stevens of Yale, and the members of the national football rules committee to whom it was presented, hope to cut football injuries by 50 per cent next fall through rigid enforcement of the new rules and the proper training and care of athletes. The drivers of the nation could do even better in their own sphere if they will "play ball" with the law and train themselves as strictly.

—Miss Muriel Thorley, 19 Macoun avenue, Medford, was soloist at the morning service of the Marion street Congregational church yesterday.

"Unreality" Subject Of Lesson Sermon

"Unreality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which was read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 3.
The Golden Text was: "For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven. Through thy precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way" (Psalms 119:89,104).
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause; which doeth great things and unsearchable: marvelous things without number" (Job 5:8,9).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The power of God brings deliverance to the captive. No power can withstand divine Love. What is this supposed power, which opposes itself to God? Whence cometh it? What is it that binds man with iron shackles to sin, sickness, and death? What ever enslaves man is opposed to the divine government" (pg. 224, 225).
—Frances Hoarty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Hoarty, 8 Logan avenue, Medford, is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis performed at the Lawrence Memorial hospital.

Miss Eleanor Mullan Honor Guest at Shower

Miss Eleanor Mullan was the honor guest at a shower arranged for her by the Misses Amy Clarke and Ruth Cresse at Miss Clarke's home, 51 Summit road, Medford on Friday evening.
The house was decorated in pink and white. A bouquet of spring flowers formed the centerpiece at the dining table and each guest found a tiny umbrella at her place.
Miss Mullan's gifts were hidden about the house and she found tiny heart shaped cards which bore a rhyme giving directions for locating them.
The gifts were of a miscellaneous nature and many were practical.
Miss Mullan's engagement to Glen Usher of Wenatchee, Wash., a student at Harvard Medical school has been announced.
The guests, who were all classmates and close friends of the bride, were the Misses Barbara Peirce, Marjorie Ellis, Marjorie Mosler, Mildred Scranage, Elizabeth McKee, Phoebe Adams, Beatrice Lord, Margaret MacNamara and Loretta Clarke. Mrs. Roland Cresse assisted Mrs. Clarke as hostess.
